Independent Review of ERO and REA Wage Setting Mechanisms

The Department of Enterprise Trade and Innovation is initiating an independent review of the framework of the statutory wage setting mechanisms known as Employment Regulation Orders (EROs) and Registered Employment Agreement (REAs). The Government has requested that the review be completed within a short timeframe.

The Review will be conducted jointly by Kevin Duffy, Chairman of the Labour Court, acting in an ad hoc capacity, and by Dr. Frank Walsh, Lecturer, School of Economics, University College Dublin.

Submissions on all issues related to the Terms of Reference of the Independent Review are welcome from the main representative bodies of employers and workers, including all of the parties directly involved in the current mechanisms in the context of evolving private sector pay policy. The Terms of Reference are available on the website of the Department of Enterprise Trade and Innovation at
