Guide to Green Cards

Introduction

The Employment Permits Acts 2003 and 2006 allow for the establishment, for the first time in Ireland, of a Green Card Scheme for occupations where high level strategic skills shortages exist. This new Green Card Scheme replaces the Work Visa/Work Authorisation Scheme, which has been discontinued.

What is a Green Card?

The Green Card is an employment permit issued to the employee and allows his or her employment in the State by the named employer in the occupation specified on the permit.

No labour market needs test (e.g. newspaper and FÁS/EURES advertising) is required prior to making an application.

Who can apply for a Green Card?

Either the employee or the employer can apply for a Green Card.

For what occupations can a Green Card be applied for?

Applications may be made in respect of two categories of occupation, based on salary level:

- (i) Firstly, where the annual salary (excluding bonuses) on offer is €60,000 or more, the Green Card is available for all occupations, other than those which are contrary to the public interest.
- (ii) Secondly, Green Cards are available in the annual salary range €30,000 - €59,999 (excluding bonuses) for a restricted number of strategically important occupations as specified in Appendix A.

What qualifications must the employee have?

The foreign-national concerned must possess the relevant qualifications, skills or experience that are required for the employment.

What form must the Job Offer take?

The issue of a Green Card is contingent on a job offer from a bona-fide employer registered with the Companies Registration Office and the Revenue Commissioners and trading in Ireland. The Job Offer must be on company headed paper, dated within the previous 60 days, must be of a 2 years or more duration and must specify the following:

- (i) A full description of the proposed employment,
- (ii) Starting date,
- (iii) Annual salary excluding bonuses, and
- (iv) Information in respect of the qualifications, skills or experience that are required for the employment.

What are the processing fees for a Green Card?

The processing fees for a Green Card, which must be paid by the applicant, are as follows:

New	-	€1,000	-	1 year period

Is it possible to pay a lower fee for a permit for a shorter period than 1 year?

No. Green Cards are only issued in respect of job offers of 2 years duration.

Guide for Employers

What can an employer do to ascertain whether an application may be made under this scheme?

To ascertain whether or not an application may be made under this scheme, an employer should satisfy him/herself that the following are all in order:

- Is your company registered and trading in Ireland – Applications will only be accepted from companies or employers that are registered with the Office of the Revenue Commissioners and with the Companies Registration Office and which are currently trading in Ireland.
- Employer/employee relationship – the foreign national concerned must be employed, salaried and paid directly by you. Applications from recruitment agencies, agents, intermediaries or companies who intend to outsource or subcontract the employee to work in another company will not be accepted under this scheme.
- Ratio of EEA/non-EEA nationals – an employment permit will not be granted to companies where a consequence of granting the permit would be that more than 50% of employees in the firm would be non-EEA nationals.
- Occupations and Salary – Applications will only be accepted for the salary ranges and occupations specified in Appendix A.

Note: a labour market needs test (e.g. advertisement of the vacancy with FÁS/EURES and in the newspapers) is not required for a Green Card application.

What can an employer do to ascertain whether or not an employee is eligible under this scheme?

- Does the foreign national possess the relevant qualifications, skills or experience that are required for the employment?
