APPENDIX

DECLARATION

- The Importer undertakes to import into Ireland the articles specified in this certificate and not to reexport the goods without the prior authorisation of the competent authority.
- The Importer undertakes to furnish proof of delivery of the articles specified in the certificate on request. Appropriate Delivery Verification certificates are issued by Customs and Excise. Application form EL V can be obtained from Customs and Excise at the port of Importation. (Importers are advised to obtain delivery verification certificates at the time of importation as difficulties may be encountered in applying retrospectively for the certificates).
- If the goods are disposed of in Ireland the importer undertakes to inform the recipients that the Articles may not subsequently be exported without the prior authorisation of the competent authority.
- The importer undertakes to notify the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Innovation immediately of any material change of fact or intention in relation to this application.
